

Clockwise from above: The tables were set with blush-colored douppioni silk and overflowing arrangements of roses, dahlias, hydrangeas and herbs in antique cut-glass containers. Scott with maid of honor Camille Stevens. Escort cards were pinned to silk ribbons weighted with rosebuds and hung from a grape arbor. "I broke down during my brother's best-man speech," says Rhulen, with his bride during the reception. Opposite: The cake, by Perfect Endings of Napa, Calif., featured tiers of red velvet, mocha, apricot and dark chocolate cake and was adorned with fresh hydrangeas, roses and daisies.

